The Gliss crew

The crewmembers of this 32-m Royal Huisman sloop won not one but two superyacht regattas in June, which has to be testament to some great teamwork onboard.

Michael Moore

In June the International SeaKeepers Society Chairman hosted an evening to generate awareness of the Society's mission to improve marine monitoring and conservation.

Amber Rasul

This conscientious chief stewardess and her fellow crew on CaryAli gathered together a band of yacht crew to clean up a rubbish-covered beach in Panama to help the locals enjoy their coastline once more. To read what happened turn to page 53.

Katie Miller

The 22-year-old yachtswoman was the youngest ever female solo sailor to complete the OSTAR transatlantic race (the world's oldest solo ocean challenge) from Plymouth to Newport, Rhode Island. She completed the race on Figaro bluQube in just under 22 days.

The Meteor crew

With superb planning, teamwork and imagination this crew pulled off a fantastic fancy dress theme at The Yacht Report Group's Caribbean Barbecue to win the Crucial Crew Award. Stewardess Jodi's tiki bar was a particular highlight.

Julian Metcalfe

This yacht owner and co-founder of sandwich chain Pret A Manger has banned sales of tuna in his shops after seeing a conservation documentary End of the Line, highlighting the plight of the fish.

Nick Ward

In 1979 the sailor almost died in the Fastnet Race, which famously hit the deadliest storm in the history of modern sailing, killing 15 sailors. Thirty years later Ward is entering the race once more, and will set sail on 9 August.
